

Specific Learning difficulties

The term 'Specific Learning Difficulty' (SpLD) is a term that refers to a difference or difficulty with particular aspects of learning. Here at St. Giles Junior school we support many children who need extra support with phonics, writing, reading or maths.

Here are some of the provision materials we can use:

Read Write Inc.

1:1 phonics – Rainbow Arc

Resources to support lessons

Numicon

Precision teaching interventions