

Speech and Language

Speech and Language interventions at St. Giles are devised to support children who suffer with issues with either: speech; language or communication. Objectives and resources are devised by specialist speech and language therapist for children who have been referred to the service – targets and work are assessed at least termly.

Sequencing activities

Learning irregular verbs